

The Rain Stomp

Notes with an 'x' can be sung, or spoken on pitch

Joyce Janzen

$\text{♩} = 100$

Voice

Ca na di an win-ters are - oft-en quite cold with snow sports like ski-ing and

Piano

5

V.

sled-ding and snow-shoe-ing and snow-ball fights and ska-ting and snow-mo-bi-ling

Pno.

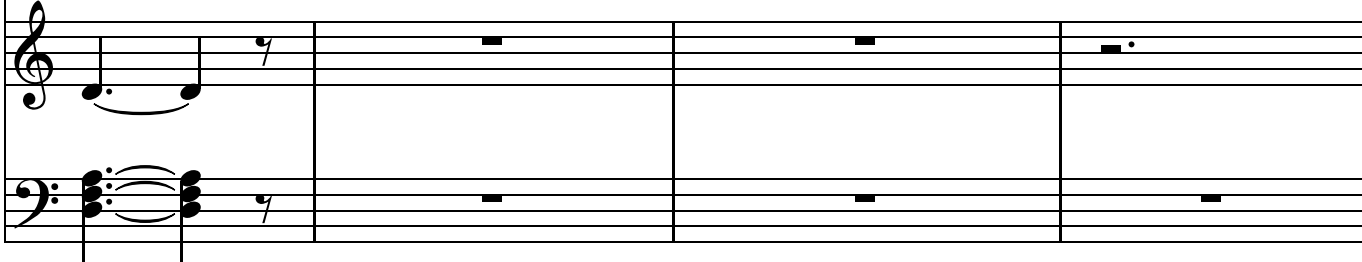

7

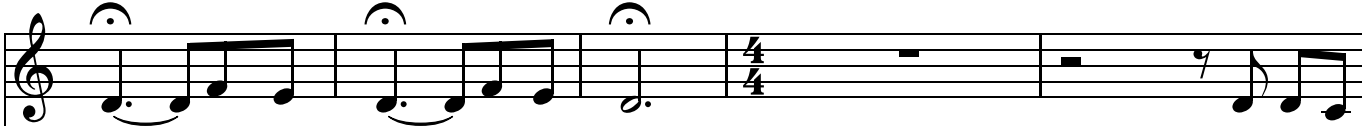

V.

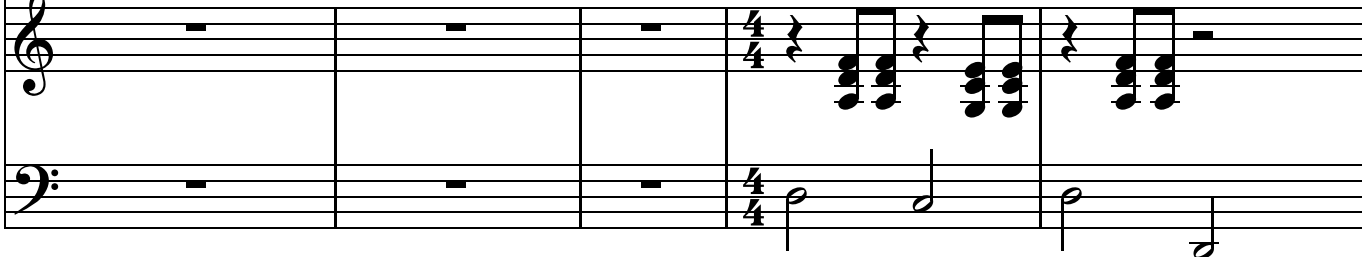

but what's a kid do who lives in the rain for-est of coas-tal B

Pno.

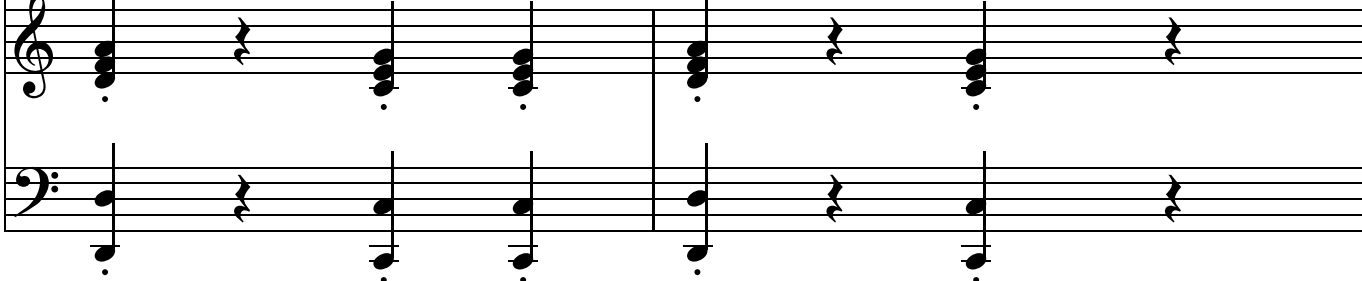

V.
C where rain falls in-cess-ant-ly down from the sky all day long all week

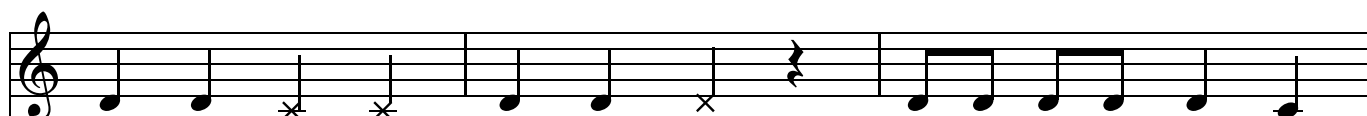

Pno.

V.
long all month long all year long You do the Pno.

V.
RAIN STOMP (rain - stomp) RAIN STOMP (stomp) you do the Pno.

V.

RAIN STOMP (rain-stomp) RAIN STOMP (stomp) First you get your clothes on Pno.

V.

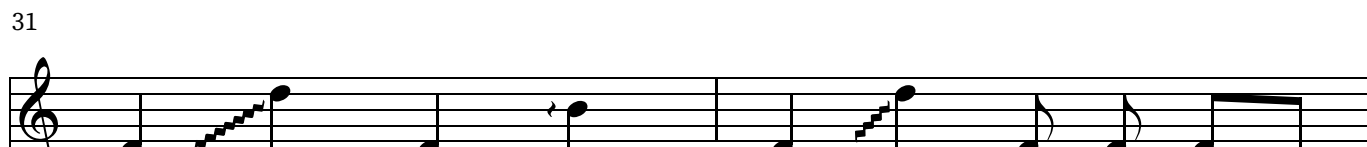

(rain boots) (rain coat) then you go out SIDE (then you go out side)

Pno.

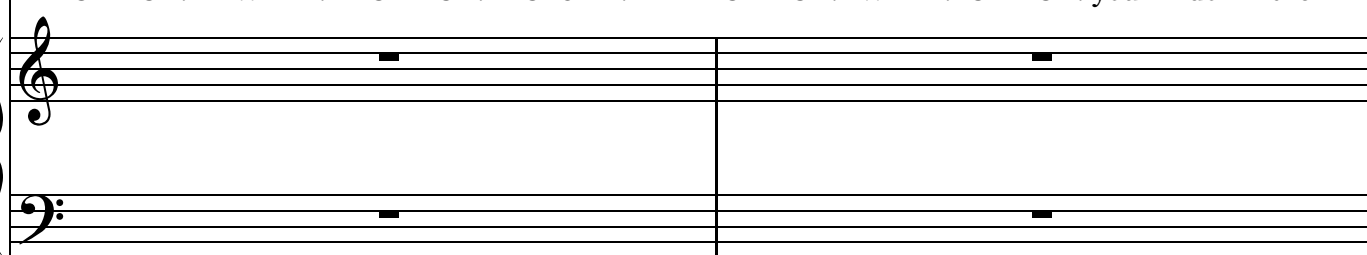

V.

find your-self a pudd - le (deep and wide) JUMP IN WITH BOTH FEET!

Pno.

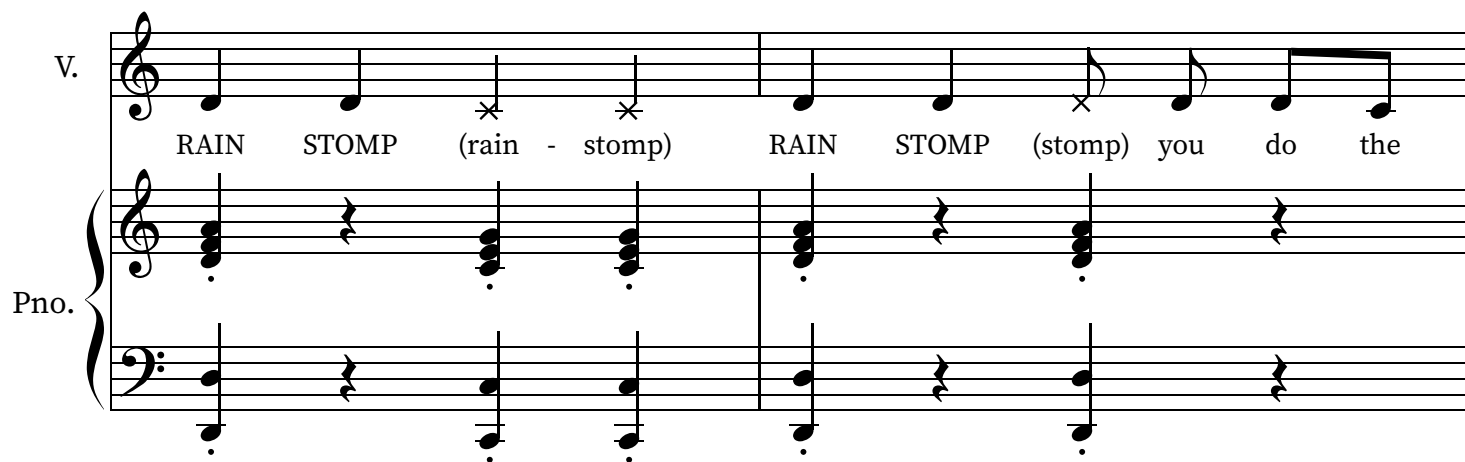

V.

SPLASH! WHEE! SPLASH! STOMP! SPLASH! WHEE! SPLASH! you do the

Pno.

V. RAIN STOMP (rain - stomp) RAIN STOMP (stomp) you do the Pno.

35

♩ = 100

V. RAIN STOMP (rain - stomp) RAIN STOMP (stomp) when you are wet

Pno.

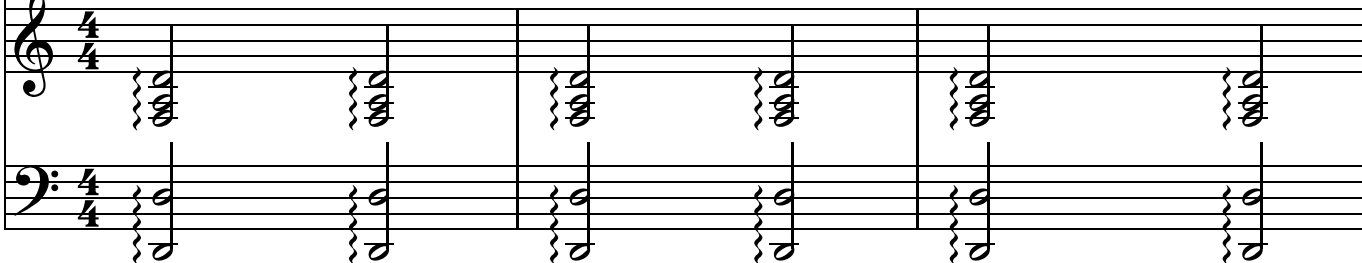

38

V. (thor-ough - ly wet) you slosh back in - side (swish slop swish)

Pno.

V.
take off all your wet clothes (shiv er ing all o ver) find your warm est clothes

Pno.

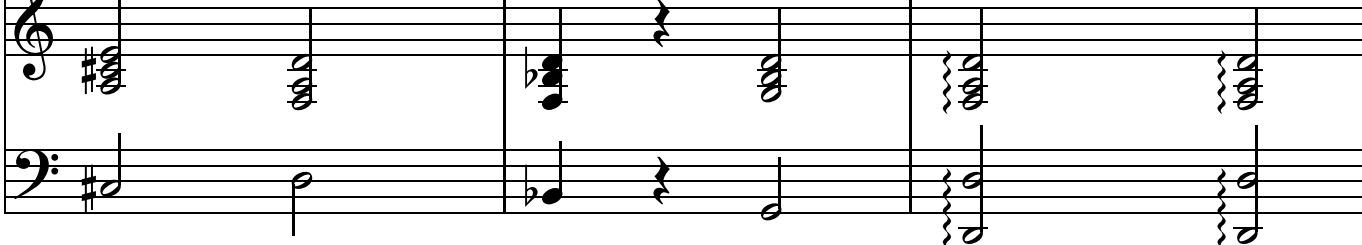

44

V.
(shiv er ing all o ver) hur-ry to the kit - chen make your-self a hot drink

Pno.

47

V.
(hot choc 'late ap - ple ci-der) look out-side the win - dow watch the rain come down,

Pno.

50

6

V. think a-bout to-mor-row hope it will be rain - ing just so you can go out - side and do the

Pno.

54 ♩ = 120

V. RAIN STOMP (rain - stomp) RAIN STOMP (stomp) do the RAIN STOMP (rain-stomp)

Pno.

57

V. STOMP!!

Pno.